WHAT:

VENICE DESIGN SERIES: Six Site-Specific Events & Guided Tours, from Venice to Bunker Hill, Leimert Park to Topanga, offering exclusive access to the homes and businesses of LA's visionary architects, artists, chefs, civic leaders, designers, entrepreneurs and performers.

WHO:

Spearheaded by the creative team of the legendary Venice Garden & Home Tour.

Supporting Venice Community Housing (VCH), a housing and community-development organization that has successfully developed lasting, neighborhood-based solutions for low-income children, families, and individuals since 1988.

WHEN & WHERE:

Saturday, April 30, 2016 - DTLA: A Downtown Experience

A dynamic and exciting guided coach/walking tour of live, work and dine spaces in the Historic Core, Bunker Hill, the Arts District and Skid Row. The tour includes lunch at the recently reopened legendary Clifton's Cafeteria and stops at iconic LA sites, with enterprising civic leaders such as Adele Yellin - Grand Central Market, The Bradbury Building, Million Dollar Theater; Nelson Rising - PacMutual, Beaux Arts & One Bunker Hill Buildings; and Yuval Bar-Zemer - Arts District developer of Toy Factory & Biscuit Company Lofts.
